About Us

Constable Screen Printing is an innovative leader in the screen printing and embroidery industry, proudly supplying high-quality apparel to businesses, sports teams, and individuals. Under new ownership, we're taking the company in an exciting direction, and we're looking for motivated individuals to join us on this journey.

About the Role

This is an incredible opportunity to kickstart your career in the embroidery industry. As an Embroidery Trainee, you will learn all aspects of embroidery production, from operating state-of-the-art machines to quality control and stock management.

Key responsibilities include

Learning Machine Operations: Training to set up, operate, and maintain embroidery machines.

Garment Preparation: Assisting with hooping, threading, and preparing garments for embroidery.

Quality Control: Inspecting finished products to ensure they meet client specifications and quality standards.

Stock Management: Assisting with unpacking and organizing stock, cross-checking incoming items against packing lists.

Team Support: Working closely with experienced team members to ensure production runs smoothly.

Benefits and Perks

Hands-On Training: Gain valuable skills and knowledge in a growing industry with full support from our experienced team.

Career Growth: Start as a trainee and work your way up as you develop expertise in embroidery production.

Great Work Environment: Be part of a supportive, dynamic, and friendly team.

Work-Life Balance: Enjoy a Monday-to-Friday schedule with no late nights or weekends.

Skills and Experience

What We're Looking For:

A strong work ethic, punctuality, and reliability.

A keen eye for detail and a commitment to maintaining high-quality standards.

Willingness to learn and a proactive approach to problem-solving.

Team-oriented with the ability to follow instructions and take initiative.

No prior experience is required—just a passion for learning and a great attitude!
